

Oman Oil to add new stations next year following a dozen openings in 2014, Muscat Daily reports

The Oman Oil Marketing Company opened a dozen filling stations, eight convenience stores and two car wash facilities this year and plans to continue its expansion in 2015, the Muscat Daily reported.

With the additions, the company has a total of 162 filling stations, 88 convenience stores and 17 car care centers, the Muscat Daily added in a report dated December 3.

The information was provided by Hussain bait Ishaq, Oman Oil's general manager of retail, fuel cards and regional offices, the Muscat Daily said.

An email sent to Oman Oil by PetrolPlaza to try to confirm the information was not immediately replied.
