

Puma Energy buys 100% of Save Combustibles in South America

Puma Energy, the globally integrated midstream and downstream energy company, announced in late March the acquisition of 100% of the shares of Save Combustibles, SAS including assets, sales and distribution facilities.

Save Combustibles is a Colombian supplier of over 135 service stations.

With this first step into the Colombian market, Puma Energy will maintain our focused strategy of connecting supply from International markets to local distribution demand.

We are a proud group of professionals with an ambitious attitude. Rodrigo Zavala, Puma Energy's Chief Operating Officer for the Americas

Puma Energy is a global integrated midstream and downstream oil company active in close to 45 countries.

Formed in 1997 in Central America, Puma Energy has since expanded to over 7,400 employees. It is headquartered now in Singapore.
