PDI showcases new loyalty and fuel pricing capabilities at NACS Show

As the premier event for the convenience industry, there's no better place to connect with partners, customers and prospects than the NACS Show. And after a year of growth, innovation and reinvention, it was a great opportunity for PDI to make a big impact. The ERP software provider's solution portfolio was on full display at the show, including its recently added loyalty management, fuel pricing and logistics mobility capabilities. From new technology to sweet and salty snacks, check out this behind-the-scenes look at the convenience industry's biggest event of the year.
